

Fraser Suites Sydney

Your safety is our highest priority

What we're doing in line with COVID-19 for Meetings & Events.

We have taken every precaution to ensure that your event is seamless, safe and in line with the latest government regulations. Our team will ensure that every event held here at Fraser Suites Sydney is organised to adhere to the most up to date government regulations.

Social distancing and strict infectious control guidelines. The health and safety of our guests, clients, visitors and staff are our highest priority.

- Let's stay safe together:
- Strict enforcement of social distancing and hygiene guidelines
- A heightened hygienic cleaning process
- Increased fixed and portable social distancing and hygiene signage throughout the venue
- Additional sanitisers and dispensers in public areas, meeting rooms and pre function areas
- Microphones, clickers, laptops sanitised before and after each use
- Offering larger rooms to meet new social distancing rules
- Individually packaged food for all delegates
- QR code for contact tracing upon entry
- Dedicated conference attendant
- Registered with NSW Government as a COVID Safe Business
- Flexible booking terms and conditions
- Virtual event solutions with This Space

We request that all Event Organisers remind delegates of the following:

- Please do not attend if they are feeling unwell or have been in contact with a confirmed case within the last 14 days
- All attendees must register upon arrival at the hotel via a QR code for possible future contact tracing
- Hand Sanitiser is available in all public areas and we request all attendees use this as they enter the function area

In addition to this, as stated on your event order, Fraser Suites Sydney will set your hired event space based on current physical distancing guidelines. Managing the attendee flow and maintaining physical distancing inside the space during your event is the responsibility of the organiser.

Please contact our Sales & Event Manager to discuss our revised packages, room capacities and any questions you have regarding holding your next event at Fraser Suites Sydney.
